A: Closed-toe sturdy footwear and clothing appropriate for the weather that day and backcountry travel appropriate (i.e. long sleeves and pants to protect skin from scratching against branches, gloves, sunglasses & sunscreen). We provide helmets that are mandatory to be worn. We have limited coveralls, rubber boots, and safety glasses available for use. Since it is not easy to add or remove layers during the trip, you should choose something that will suit you for the duration of the tour. Scarves, open jackets or shirts and clothing tied around the waist are not acceptable. Backpacks, fanny packs, and shoulder bags are not allowed during the zipline portion as they can interfere with the harness. If rain is expected, you should bring your own rain gear. Long hair should be held back with a hair band.

Q: Can I bring a camera on with me?
